18th June (Wednesday)

Sunny

What a joyful day! I went to Leslie's home after school.

First, I did my homework. One hour later, I finished my homework and I made models with Leslie. We felt fantastic.

Next, Leslie's mum taught us how to make English muffins. They were yummy! After that, we played hide-and-seek in the garden. It was so much fun!

In the evening, we went home and waved goodbye!

The Witch's Soup

Kok Ka Hey, Edwin (3C)

It is Friday morning. The witch prepares some soup for the children in Class 3C.

First, she boils some water. Then, she washes some tomatoes and a lot of chili. Next, she cuts them into small pieces and puts them into the water. After that, she adds some French toast. Finally, she puts a lot of spiders into the pot.

The next day, the witch brings the soup to school. The children in Class 3C drink a lot of water after eating the soup.

The Witch's Soup

Ng Cheuk Nam, Chloe (3C)

Today is Halloween. The witch is preparing some soup for the children in Class 3C in the kitchen.

Jack's birthday surprise

Wong Tse Chun, Prince (4A)

Jack liked to eat sweet food. He didn't like to eat vegetables or meat. He ate a lot of chocolate, sweets and cupcakes every day. His mum was worried about him because sugary food was bad for him.

On the day before Jack's birthday, mum said, 'I will make a cake to celebrate your birthday.' Jack was happy. He wanted to have a sweet chocolate birthday cake.

On Jack's birthday, mum made a special cake. His birthday cake was a veggie cake. It was made of broccoli and carrots. Jack was very upset.

His mum asked him to taste a bite. He tried a small bite. He found that the cake was so yummy. He fell in love with the veggie cake. He started eating vegetables and became healthy.

Buying a birthday cake

Tsang Hei Man, Rita (4B)

Last Sunday was Tim's sister's birthday. Tim wanted to buy her a birthday cake and hold a birthday party at home.

Tim went to the cake shop by MTR. Soon, he arrived at the cake shop. He saw many cakes with different flavours there. He knew his sister loved strawberry cakes and chocolate cakes but he thought the chocolate cake was more delicious than the strawberry cake.

The chocolate cake was the most popular cake because many customers bought it. Tim decided to buy a chocolate cake. It was one hundred dollars. When he was ready to pay for the cake, he could not find his wallet. He found everywhere but he could not find it! He was scared.

Suddenly, Tim saw his best friend, Andy in the cake shop. Tim said, 'Andy, it's my sister's birthday today. I want to buy her a birthday cake but I didn't bring my wallet. What can I do?' Andy replied, 'You can make a beautiful necklace. I think she'll like it!' Then, Tim left the cake shop. He went home and made a necklace for his sister.

Finally, Tim gave the hand-made necklace to his sister. His sister was delighted. She liked it very much! She put on the necklace and she looked pretty! Tim's sister had a wonderful birthday although she did not have a birthday cake!

Buying a birthday cake

Chen Yi Kang, John (4C)

Yesterday was Tim's mum's birthday. Tim wanted to give his mum a surprise so he bought a cake for his mum. What happened on that day?

First, Tim went to the cake shop. He saw two birthday cakes in the shop window. The chocolate cake was more expensive than the strawberry cake and he thought the chocolate cake was more delicious than the strawberry cake. He wanted to buy the cheaper cake because his mum liked strawberries. When he paid at the checkout, he couldn't find the wallet so he didn't buy the cake.

After that, at the birthday party, they played some games. When it was time for the cake, Tim said, 'I'm sorry. I didn't get the cake.' His mum listened to him and then she said, 'The gift itself may be light as a goose feather, but sent from afar, it conveys deep feeling.' The effort you put on my birthday party is more than the gift itself. This is the best birthday ever! I want you to learn this lesson. Therefore, don't be upset.'

In the end, although they didn't have a cake to celebrate, they still enjoyed the party very much.

Buying a birthday cake

Kwok Tin Yu, Hebe (4C)

Today was Tim's mother's birthday. Tim wanted to buy a birthday cake to celebrate his mother's birthday.

Tim went to Yummy Cake Shop because there were many kinds of desserts. He looked at the shop window. There were two cakes — a chocolate cake and a strawberry cake. He thought his mother liked chocolate cake and the chocolate cake was more delicious than the strawberry cake so he chose the chocolate cake. When he went to the cashier, he couldn't find his wallet. He yelled, 'Oh no! I forgot to bring my wallet.' He was so upset that he came back home to get his wallet. Then he went back to the cake shop again but the cake shop was closed. Suddenly, Tim thought of a good idea. He went to a card shop and bought a birthday card.

In the end, when Tim's mother came back, she saw the lights off so she turned on the lights. Tim's father and Tim yelled, 'Happy birthday!' Tim gave his birthday card to his mother. Tim's mother felt surprised. They celebrated Mum's birthday together. They felt happy.

Buying a birthday cake

Li Hon Yin, Hayden 4C

Today was Tim's mother's birthday so Tim wanted to buy a birthday cake for his mum and celebrated for her. Therefore, he went to a cake shop near his home.

When he went to the shop, he saw two cakes in the shop window. It was a strawberry cake and a chocolate cake. Tim thought the chocolate cake was more delicious than the strawberry cake but the chocolate cake was more expensive than the strawberry cake. He didn't know which cake he should choose so he thought for a while there. He thought, 'Mum likes strawberry cakes. Erm...OK, I'll buy a strawberry cake.' Then, he went to the checkout and paid.

'Oh no! I left my wallet at home!' said Tim. The cashier asked him, 'Which cake would you like?' Tim answered, 'The strawberry cake, please.' 'That's OK! You have enough reward points to buy the strawberry cake.' Tim was happy because he could buy the cake for his mum.

When Tim went home, Dad was at home. Tim said, 'I bought a birthday cake for Mum!' Dad said, 'Well done!' When Tim went to the dining room, the room was beautiful because Dad decorated it. Then Dad said, 'Turn off the lights and wait for Mum,' so Tim turned off the lights.

When Tim's mum went home, she asked, 'Why is it so dark here?' Then Tim turned on the lights. 'Happy birthday!' Tim and Dad said to Mum.

In the end, everyone was happy.

Jack's birthday surprise

Lau Wing Ching, Ivan (4C)

One night, Jack was at home. He was hungry and he wanted to eat something while his mum was cooking dinner. He decided to eat some cupcakes, chocolate and candies. He only ate sugary food so his mum was not happy. Mum said, 'Jack, you need healthy food, not junk food!' Then, Jack quickly hid all the junk food. When Mum was ready to eat dinner, she gave some vegetables to Jack but Jack didn't eat them. He only ate fish and meat, Mum was worried about Jack's health because he was a picky eater. Mum thought of many ideas to help Jack eat healthily.

The other day, Mum found a cake shop.

She remembered that it would be Jack's birthday the next day. After that, she went back home and told Jack about his birthday party. When Jack heard it, he was over the moon and excited. Jack thought he would get a very delicious cake so he felt delighted. It was ten o'clock at night so Jack needed to go to sleep but he couldn't sleep because he was too excited about the cake. He kept thinking what the cake would look like.

The next morning Jack woke up at six o'clock and he went to his mum's room and woke her up to show him the cake. But then when Mum came out of the kitchen with the cake, Jack saw the cake and he was surprised and very angry because the cake was made with vegetables!

In the end, Jack threw the cake down on the street and hit a neighbour. The neighbour called the police and the police arrested Jack for trying to kill people. He was sent to prison. In the prison, the food was all healthy so Jack couldn't be picky with food. When Jack was free to go home, he was so fit and healthy. His mum thought that was not her son. Since then Jack was not a picky eater anymore.

This story tells us that we need to have a balanced diet or your body will be unhealthy.

Jack's birthday surprise

Xiao Lucas (4C)

There was a boy called Jack. He was very picky with food. He always ate a lot of sugary food such as chocolate, cupcakes, sweets and so on, but he never ate any healthy food such as tuna, lettuce or rice. His mum was very worried about his health because she thought the harmful sugary food would give him gastrointestinal discomfort and make him sick more easily. Therefore, Jack's mum always told him to eat less junk food because it was bad for his teeth but Jack was still a picky eater.

Jack's mum hoped that he could eat more healthy food so she thought of a lot of ideas to help him but she couldn't think of any nice ideas. One day, Jack's mum went to the market and she walked past a book shop. She saw a book about cakes. She suddenly had a brainwave and she bought some food in the market and went back home quickly. When Jack's mum went back home, she told Jack, 'Tomorrow is your birthday, I'll bake a cake for you.' Jack was very thrilled and he thought, 'The cake must be delicious. Oh! Will the cake be blue? It's my favourite colour!' He thought and thought.

The next day, Jack woke up early and ran to the kitchen. He opened the refrigerator but he couldn't figure out what the birthday surprise was because he could not find the cake. At that moment, his mum took out a cake and walked to his back and said, 'This is your birthday cake, Jack!' Jack was disappointed because there were a lot of broccoli, a lot of carrots and a lot of tomatoes in the cake. Jack didn't want to eat it, but he still took a bite because he didn't want to disappoint Mum. Jack tried to eat it and he thought it was mouth-watering. He said, 'Wow! It's delicious!' Therefore, he got rid of the bad eating habits.

Since then, Jack had a good balanced diet. He always ate a lot of vegetables and fruit. Now, Jack knows how important a balanced diet is and he will be healthy forever.

Jack's birthday surprise

Yang Eric (4C)

There was a fat boy called Jack. When he was little, his grandparents used to give him some junk food to eat so he started to eat a lot of junk food. He became a picky eater and was always picky with food. He only ate a lot of junk food such as chocolate, cupcakes, sweets and so on.

He used to say, 'Yuck!' when he saw vegetables. His mum was worried about him so she always said to Jack softly, 'Sugary food is bad for our teeth. We must have a balanced diet.' But Jack did not listen to her.

One day, when Mum was shopping in the street, she saw a bakery. Then she thought of a good idea to help Jack eat healthily. After that she came back home and said to Jack, 'Jack, tomorrow is your birthday. I'll make a cake for you.' Jack thought, 'The cake must be yummy!' Jack was excited for the party and the cake. He even lost sleep until one o'clock. At night, although Mum was tired, she still made the special cake when Jack slept.

The next day, Jack woke up early and ran into his mum's room at once and woke her up. She woke up and took the cake out from the refrigerator. Jack said loudly, 'Yuck! Why is it a vegetable cake?' His mum answered, 'You need to eat more vegetables!' OK!

He said impatiently, 'Yum!' He took a bite. Then he ate the cake all. His mum smiled happily.

Since then, Jack tried to eat more vegetables, more rice and less junk food. Finally, he ate a lot of vegetables at every meal.

After that, Jack learned that we must have a balanced diet so that we could live a happy and healthy life.

Buying a birthday cake

Chan Cheuk Yee, Mandy (4D)

Today Tim wanted to buy a cake because it was Mum's birthday. He felt excited. He went to a cake shop. He looked at the cakes. There were a strawberry cake and a chocolate cake. The strawberry cake was eighty dollars but the chocolate was one hundred dollars. It was more expensive than the strawberry cake.

Tim wanted to eat the chocolate cake because it was delicious. He wanted to buy it but it was the most expensive cake in the shop. He felt puzzled.

Tim decided to buy the chocolate cake so he went to the cashier. He could not find the wallet. He said, 'Oh no!' He was nervous and did not know what to do.

At last, Tim ran home. He got the wallet and bought the chocolate cake for Mum. He felt great.

Susie's breakfast

Yau Chak Wang, Ivan(4D)

Today, Susie went to the supermarket with her Mum to buy their breakfast for tomorrow.

Susie said, 'I want to have sandwiches for breakfast.' Susie's Mum asked, 'Which do you like, tuna sandwiches or cheese sandwiches?' Susie said, 'I love eating fish so I want to have tuna sandwiches. Mum, can you buy the cheese sandwiches for dad too?' Mum replied, 'Okay!'

Then they went to get some drinks but there was no apple juice. Susie got a good idea. They went to another supermarket to buy the apple juice.

At last, they went home happily.

Susie's Breakfast

Sabrina Tan Nga Ting (4E)

Last week, Susie and her mum went to Sha Tin Na Na Supermarket. They wanted to buy delicious and healthy food for breakfast.

There was a lot of nice food in the supermarket. Susie said, "I like sandwiches very much."

"Which sandwich would you like, a tuna sandwich or a cheese sandwich?" asked Susie's mum. "I think Dad likes cheese sandwiches but I like tuna sandwiches. Mum, can we buy both?"

"Alright, let's buy both," her mum replied.

Susie and her mum then went to the drinks section to buy apple juice. “Oops! There’s no more apple juice. It is sold out!” In the end, they bought orange juice instead because it was cheaper than apple juice.

They then went home with lots of delicious and healthy food.

The New Cinderella

Lau Lok Wa, Laura (5B)

Once upon a time, there was a princess. Her name was Cinderella. She had two sisters. Auges had short hair, big eyes and a small nose. She also had small ears and a big mouth. Ella had long hair, small eyes and a big nose. She also had big ears and a small mouth. They were so ugly, unkind, mean and cruel. They always ordered Cinderella to do the housework at home.

One day, Cinderella discovered an invitation card on the floor. It was from the prince. He invited all the girls in town to join his birthday party. Cinderella wanted to go so much. Suddenly, an elf appeared. The elf asked, 'What can I do for you?' Cinderella said, 'Can you help me join the prince's birthday party in the castle?

Please give me a beautiful dress and a speedy sports car.' The elf replied, 'OK, no problem!' He gave Cinderella all she wanted and sent her to the castle at once.

The two sisters peeked near Cinderella's room. Then they ran to push the elf. They said, 'We want a castle, beautiful dresses and marry the prince.' The elf disappeared immediately.

In the end, Cinderella went to the party. The prince saw her and loved her so much. She married the prince later. She became the queen and lived happily with the prince ever after.

An unlucky day!

Tang Yuen Ching, Michelle (5C)

Last Sunday, the Wong family went to the beach. They prepared a lot of things. Mother made some yummy sandwiches. She told Lily to put the sandwiches in the backpack. Lily replied, 'OK. I'll do it soon! I need to put my kite in the backpack first.' Father was checking the weather report while May was feeding and playing with the cat. Although they were as busy as bees, they were still thrilled and looking forward to going to the beach. Everything went well.

Mother and father brought abundance of things. However, they forgot to bring the most important thing- the sandwiches because the sandwiches were covered by the newspaper. The cat sneaked into the backpack stealthily. The Wong family set off jubilantly and headed to the beach excitedly. Lily yelled, 'I can't wait to have our picnic! Let's go!'

They walked for thirty minutes before they arrived at the beach. They chose a shade of tree and sat under it. Mother opened the backpack and she couldn't believe her eyes because there was a cat in the backpack and she couldn't find the sandwiches! Mother was confused. 'Where are the sandwiches and why is there a cat in the backpack?' Lily was wondering why the backpack was so heavy since she remembered she had only put a kite inside. May didn't realize the cat was in the backpack either. They all felt puzzled when they saw the cat.

Suddenly the sky turned dark and it began to rain heavily. Mr Wong shouted, 'The weather is turning bad. Let's go indoor!' They rushed to a shelter quickly under the heavy rain. Their clothes were soaked in rain and they were sick after the rain.

Finally they called off the picnic because of the awful weather and they went to see the doctor. Everyone needed to rest in bed for one day. They went to a restaurant to have dinner because they didn't eat any food all day except breakfast. May suggested, 'We may go for a picnic on a sunny day next week.' Everyone cheered. They have learnt that they should check everything carefully when they plan for an outing next time.

The New Cinderella

Zeng Baijin, Damon (5C)

Once upon a time, there was a beautiful girl called Cinderella. She had two step-sisters called Joey and Mary. They were cruel. They always made Cinderella do the housework.

While Cinderella was cleaning the bedroom, her sisters were looking at her. After a while,

Joey said to Mary, 'I'm hungry. Let's go for lunch.'

Cinderella was crying loudly when the two step-sisters left the room. She thought, 'In the fairy tale, a fairy helped Cinderella. I wish I had one too...' Suddenly, a boy with a magic wand appeared in her house and Cinderella looked at him open-mouthed. Cinderella asked excitedly, 'Oh, are you a genie?' The genie nodded his head and replied, 'Yes, I am.' Cinderella cheered, 'Fantastic! I want to go to Prince Steven's palace. Can you help me?' The genie said, 'Of course! However, you must have a beautiful dress first. Abracadabra!' He used his magic wand to turn Cinderella in the beautiful dress. Then, she set off for Prince Steven's palace. However, they didn't know Joey and Mary heard everything.

When the genie was sleeping, the bad step-sisters caught him and woke him up. They shouted, 'If you don't help us, we'll eat you.' The genie helped them because he didn't want to die.

In the palace, the guests danced and ate happily. The prince saw Cinderella, so he asked politely, 'Hello, would you like to dance with me?' Cinderella said yes.

When they finished dancing, the prince announced, 'I've fallen in love with Cinderella at first sight and I'll marry her.' However, the two step-sisters yelled, 'No, the prince is ours!' Then they fought with Cinderella and the prince ordered the soldiers to arrest the two step-sisters and put them in prison.

In the end, Cinderella and the prince lived happily ever after. This story has taught us a lesson: Don't be greedy, otherwise, you will lose everything.

The Two Brothers

Chung Hei Tung, Hailey (5D)

Tom and Peter are brothers. Tom is nine years old and Peter is seven years old. They like reading storybooks. However, they sometimes fight with each other.

One day, their father went to work. He told Tom and Peter to do the washing up and fold the clothes. Tom was happy to hear that but Peter was upset.

In the afternoon, Peter watched TV in the living room. Tom washed the dishes in the kitchen. Tom told Peter to fold the clothes but Peter did not listen to him. Tom was angry.

Suddenly, Peter saw a cockroach on the table. He was scared, so he hid under the table. Tom laughed at Peter loudly.

Tom killed the cockroach at last and said sorry to Peter because he knew he was rude to Peter.

In the end, both of them learnt a lesson. They should help each other.

The Two Brothers

Tom told Dad that Peter did not help with the housework. Dad was disappointed with him. Starting from that day, Peter was no longer lazy, he helped to do the housework.

A Day in a Poor Village

Lau Wing In (6A)

Date: 19th December 2019

Weather: Sunny

Today I joined a charity trip organized by United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund because I wanted to understand people's life in poor countries. I visited a small, poor village in Cambodia which is one of the poorest countries in the world.

I visited two girls who are twins. The older sister is called Amy and the younger sister is called Ann. They live with their mother and their baby brother. They live in a tiny and vulnerable hut together. It is about 6 m<sup>2</sup>. The hut is so small that all the family members have to share one bed. Their mother needs to take care of their baby brother so she cannot leave the hut to find food or get drinking water. Amy and Ann have to collect water for the whole family every day. The water buckets are very heavy so collecting water is not an easy job. They have very little food to eat because they do not have enough money to buy food. They only have some plain rice to eat.

In school, there are very few teachers but there are far more students. Students do not have pencils or paper to write. There are very few books so the students need to share books during the lessons. The classroom is crowded too.

This trip was very unforgettable. People in the village are very wretched because they do not have enough food or clean water. After this trip, I learn that we should treasure our food and water. I think we need to help people in poor countries so I will donate money to charitable organizations. I will organize some fundraising events too. Let's work together to help people in poor countries.

Eric's Adventure

Eric met a genie who made him grow taller but he could not stop Eric from growing. They did not know what to do.

The genie had an idea. He suggested, 'We can ask the wizard to help you.' 'But there is a long way,' the genie continued. Eric really wanted to grow shorter so he and the genie set off for the wizard's house.

They crossed over the river and climbed up the mountain. After an hour, they reached the wizard's house.

Eric asked the wizard happily, 'I want to be shorter! Can you help me?' The wizard boasted, 'I am the most powerful wizard in the world!' However he cast a wrong spell and turned Eric into a fish! The genie was shocked.

Suddenly, Eric swam into the river! The genie followed Eric quickly. Eric saw a mermaid in the river so he stopped and talked to the mermaid, 'Can you turn me back into a human?'

'Hocus-pocus!' the mermaid shouted. Eric turned into a human immediately! He felt thrilled. 'Hurray!' Eric screamed. However Eric was still very tall. Then the mermaid gave Eric a magic drink. He drank it as soon as possible.

When he went back to the ground, he looked at the mirror. He got shorter finally!

From then on, Eric, the genie and the mermaid became friends! They helped one another eagerly. The evil wizard was arrested by an army in the end.

Gratitude for Tung Wah

I would like to thank Tung Wah Group for providing different kinds of services to the society. It gives us education, medication and funeral service so I have to be grateful to Tung Wah Group of Hospitals.

Since Tung Wah Group of Hospitals has run a Chinese medicine clinic, people go to see the doctor when they are sick. They can obtain medical care even though they are poor and not able to pay the medical fees. Also, the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals has opened a home for the elderly to conduct regular physical examinations so that their health would be protected. It has also run day care centres for the elderly so that it may relief their family members' stress.

Besides, Tung Wah Group helps some disabled people who have not been employed in different working fields. It helps them build up their confidence.

Owing to the above reasons, I am very grateful for the devotion of Tung Wah Group.
